

Knowing you.

For more than accountancy,
business and financial advice.

Who we are

▼ More than accountants, business and financial advisers.

We get to know you and understand your needs so we can really help guide you to a brighter future.

It is our people who guide our clients that make our firm what it is: It's their dedication to providing a personal service that sets us apart. We work as a team and have a wide range of skills, specialisms, and expertise amongst us.

We have a comprehensive range of services on offer but if you are unsure whether we can help, please don't hesitate to get in touch – if we can't provide the service directly, we will be happy to guide you to someone who can.

We pride ourselves on being a socially responsible employer and are committed to ensuring Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) is an active part of our business. We have a Wellbeing programme for all our people, raise funds for local causes and have our own Kreston Reeves Foundation to name a few.

Why choose us?

▼ Guiding you to a brighter future

The world is forever evolving and we want to help all generations embrace this change through trusted advice, support and guidance.

A passion for continued improvement ensures that we work to understand your goals: we will support and advise you on your journey, and we will help you to realise your ambitions.

Our purpose is rooted in our values and our values define who we are, what we stand for, and how we behave.

Our values

Make it personal

Be crystal clear

Understand

Be human

Look ahead

Who we help

We help dynamic businesses, charity, not for profit organisations, private individuals and families with more than accountancy, business and financial advice.

Wherever you are based, whatever your structure or size and wherever your ambition takes you – we can help.

We support all businesses whether they are well established, growing or facing difficulties. We help individuals who are looking for guidance on managing or maximising their personal finances or creating a Will or Trust. We also work alongside charity or not for profit organisations to help them achieve their strategic objectives.

“With Kreston Reeves we have reassurance of knowing that everything is in good order. They have identified potential issues for us and ensured that we avoid significant future costs... I can rely on the team at Kreston Reeves to provide prompt, well informed advice whenever I need it. I am happy to say that David [Turner] has become one of our most trusted advisers.”

Michael Firmin, Managing Director, Alan Firmin Ltd

“We wanted a firm that really got involved in understanding what our business is about... We know they are there if we need expert advice on specific projects... We trust them.”

Tony Papas, Allpress Espresso

Allpress Espresso, the speciality coffee roasters, was founded in New Zealand and now has operations across Australia, Asia and the UK. We helped Allpress set up in the UK and handle their accounts, audit and corporate tax and have provided consultancy services supporting their UK business expansion.
